HONOLULU, July 1st, 1885.
D. A. MCKINLEY, Esq.,
Consul for the United States at Honolulu.

DEAR SIR:—We, the undersigned residents of Honolulu, desire to express to you our sincere regret at the termination, by your departure, of the relations which have existed between us, during the past years of your official life in our midst. The close intercourse between the United States and the Hawaiian Kingdom, renders the part of United States Consul at this port one of peculiar importance, and brings the incumbent into constant communication with every business house and business man. The harmony of these relations depends very largely on the personal, as well as official, bearing of the Consul, and it is our especial desire to express our sense of the courteous and obliging manner in which you have transacted all the official business that we have had to bring before you.

We need not occupy your time by many words on this subject, and the most we can say is that each of us feels that he is bidding good-bye to a friend, and to one who never purchased friendship by the sacrifice of duty.

We beg you will carry with you the accompanying walking-stick only to remind you at times of the sturdy friends you have left behind, and who will miss your genial smiles and hearty words.

We remain, dear sir,

Yours very faithfully,

Wm. G. Irwin & Co., H. A. Widemann

Mr. McKinley replied as follows:

GENTLEMEN:—Your valuable token is truly a surprise and from my whole heart I can only say at this time, that I return my sincere thanks not only for the elegant gift but for the many kindly expressions you have tendered. It shall be my pride through life to carry with me this walking stick, and as the years come and go I shall be pleased to lean on this staff and feel that it is emblematic of that firm, true and abiding friendship which smooths the path of life and supports tottering age to the brink of the grave. Again I thank you each and all, and you have my sincere hope that your lives may continue beyond the allotted time and always abounding in peace and joy.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Honolulu society was all astir last evening, the occasion being a farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner at the residence of Mr. Charles M. Cooke, Beritania street. The house and grounds were beautifully decorated, and the effect as seen from the road was very fine. The spacious front verandah was one mass of colored lanterns, and large numbers were distributed around the grounds. The Royal Hawaiian Band was stationed immediately in front of the house, and during the evening played a choice programme of music by order of H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani. The interior of the palatial residence presented a gay appearance, being crowded throughout the evening by large numbers of our best society people, whose variegated costumes lent an additional charm to the scene. Amongst those present were: His Majesty the King, H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani, His Ex. Gov. J. O. Dominis, His Ex. the Minister of the Interior and Mrs. Gulick, the American Minister Resident, Hon. George W. Merrill, and Mrs. Merrill, H. B. M.'s Commissioner Major J. H. Wodehouse and Mrs. Wodehouse. The invited guests were received at the entrance by Mr. Cooke and at once conducted to the large parlors and presented to Mr. and Mrs. Turner, by Mrs. Cooke and Mr. J. B. Atherton. During the evening, ice cream and cake were handed round, and the event is one that will not soon be forgotten. Mr. and Mrs. Turner left on the Alameda to-day for England.

PINNED AND CANED.

On Memorial Day last, Miss Annis Montague and Mr. Chas. Turner were invited by a committee of Geo. W. DeLong Post, No. 45, G. A. R., to assist them in their exercises at Music Hall, which invitation they kindly accepted, and to their artistic efforts may be attributed the success of the entertainment. None who were there will ever forget their rendition of patriotic airs. It was resolved at a subsequent meeting of the Post, "that a committee be appointed to obtain suitable gifts to be presented to Miss Montague and Mr. Turner," and Comrades Hartwell, Laine and Eldredge were selected. The result was a beautiful pin representing the male vine on a trellis, with a flower made of a kukui nut in the centre, for Miss Montague, and a very fine sandal-wood cane with an ivory head for Mr. Turner. The whole matter was kept secret, until Comrade Laine invited Miss Montague and Mr. Turner in to the back parlor, at the reception at the residence of Mr. C. M. Cooke last evening, when Comrade Hartwell presented the souvenirs of the Post, to the bewildered recipients, in a very neat speech, assuring them of the "aloha nui loa" of the Comrades, and wishing them long life, prosperity and happiness. This was responded to in a feeling manner by the fair "nightingale" and Mr. Turner, and so ended the very pleasant surprise.

THE ALAMEDA'S DEPARTURE.

The scene on the wharf to-day at the departure of the Alameda was unusually gay. A large number of passengers left by her, and the greater portion of them were almost buried in leis and flowers. His Majesty the King and H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani were present to bid good bye to several friends. The Royal Hawaiian Band seemed to play better than ever, and finished up with "Good-bye Charlie," the "Star Spangled Banner" and the "Hawaii Ponoi." The vessel left at noon sharp.

A PRESENTATION BAT.

In the window of Messrs. J. M. Oat, Jr., & Co.'s store may be seen a very handsome baseball bat, about two feet six inches in length. It is made of the different island woods, and polished in a beautiful manner. The end of the handle is of ivory, below which is a silver band for an inscription. It is presented by Mr. J. M. Oat to the club winning most games during the series. The bat was turned and polished by Mr. W. E. Herrick and is highly creditable to him.

MYRTLES VS. DUDES.

The second game of polo ever played in this city took place last evening at the Yosemite Skating Rink between the above two clubs of the Yosemite league. The first goal was obtained by the Dudes, but they did not get a chance to score afterwards, the Myrtles winning the next three goals and the game. Dr. McAllister, Frank Gertz, C. Eckel and W. Richards officiated as umpires. The game lasted just twenty-five minutes, and was very exciting. A good audience was present.
